

QLBC Youth Mentoring

While mentoring is proven to be effective, it needs to be managed in a professional manner. Mentoring programs that do not screen, train and support their Mentors can be more harmful than helpful.

The "QLBC Youth Mentoring" staff has been trained in the use of "Best Practices" mentoring procedures to ensure that the mentors and protégés have the highest quality experiences as they build their relationships.

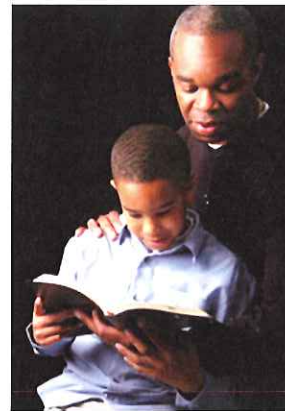

Our support team of screeners, coaches, prayer coordinators, and staff leaders has local roots and long-term interest in our community. Their support and oversight helps QLBC provide quality support to mentoring match.

Quality Mentors

We strive to find the best mentors for the youth and families in our community. All of our mentors go through the following process:

- Application
- Four references
- Interview
- Orientation/Best practices training
- Background check

Our staff are seeking those who can best serve the community according to God's direction and the standards and values of QLBC.

Effective Support

We not only take care in choosing the right mentor for the youth or parent, we support the mentor, youth and family throughout the mentoring relationship. The QLBC staff is available for advice, training, and resources to help the mentoring match develop a healthy relationship.

Core Values

The Bible is God's authoritative Word.

Everyone is created by God in His image and, therefore, each one is valued by Him.

Jesus Christ is our only hope for salvation, maturity, and eternally useful service.

We believe that one of the best ways to communicate God's love, truth, and righteousness on this mission field is through personal one-to-one relationships.

All who receive Jesus Christ as Savior and Lord should have the opportunity to be welcomed into His church and receive discipleship in His love and truth.

We depend on the Spirit of God to help us discern our youths' core needs and assist in meeting them. We seek to do so in a way that encourages a dependence on God, His church, and His Biblical mandate to work to sustain ourselves and to serve others.
